

MAYA PETROVNA

-Hospitality rider-

1. Food: Maya is a lifelong vegetarian.
2. Beverages:
event/festival/venue should provide room temperature bottled water. NO ICE in any drink.
Strong coffee made with love.
A shot of cognac with one raw egg for the voice to take shortly before the show to be prepared in chaining room.
3. Transportation organised to and from the venue. Decent wifi. Preferably in isolated and quiet place, if its possible.
4. Maya's costumes and equipment sometimes take 3 large suitcases, weighing over 100 kilos so runner and assistance in transporting them is essential. Because of delicate headpieces and equipment inside, it must be handled with great care and avoid bumping and throwing.
5. Safe locker/security personnel for where costumes, equipment and crucial documents are kept. Maya's costumes are unique pieces, designed from expensive materials.
6. Bathroom and shower with towels.
7. Festival/event needs to provide area where loud voice warm up (without disrupting other performers), and body routine stretching is possible. Unless artist is placed in a hotel room/air bnb that allows that.
8. Complimentary tickets or guest list, if part of agreement.
